AUSTIN

brings colorful splashes of color to your shot and the world immediately appears in a more cheerful light. Due to the overlapping circles, new shades of colour are mixed with the background. Pep up your Instant

RAINDROPS

You have the blues or you're longing for a refreshing summer rain? Then you can use this effect to express your mood. Show others your world through a window pane full of raindrops and melancholy on a sunny day. Pep up your Instant

NORTHERN LIGHTS

The most complex effect of the No1 filters. This layer responds very variable, some even say unpredictable, depending on the backgrounds and light incursions. From a very subtle mere hint to surprisingly very strong effects, everything is possible. The whole picture is given a certain elegance and quality look. Pep up your Instant
